FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION

TED MARCUM,	:
Plaintiff,	:
v.	:	Case No. 3:17-cv-437
SHERIFF DAVE DUCHAK,	:	JUDGE WALTER H. RICE
Defendant.	:

DECISION AND ENTRY GIVING PLAINTIFF ONE FINAL
OPPORTUNITY TO AVOID THE CAPTIONED CAUSE BEING DISMISSED FOR FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

On March 12, 2019, the Court sustained Plaintiff's Motion for Relief from Judgment, which the Court construed as a motion to modify the Preliminary Pretrial Order. It directed the parties to confer and file a Joint Rule 26(f) Report within 21 days. Doc. #86.

According to the Court's docket, an employee of the Clerk of Court spoke to Plaintiff on March 21, 2019. Plaintiff was no longer incarcerated at the Butler County Jail. The Court updated his address to 185 Dye Mill Road, Troy, Ohio. Plaintiff was to send a Notice of Change of Address.

On April 2, 2019, counsel for Defendant Dave Duchak filed a unilateral Rule 26(f) Report, noting that he had spoken to Plaintiff by telephone on March 21, 2019. Plaintiff indicated that he was planning to speak to an attorney the following day about possible representation. Thereafter, counsel for Defendant made repeated attempts to reach Plaintiff so that they could complete the Rule 26(f) Report. When he called the Butler County Jail, he was told that Plaintiff was no longer incarcerated there, and Plaintiff had not provided a forwarding address or other contact information. Docs. ##87, 88.

On April 3, 2019, the Court issued a Show Cause Order, Doc. #89, directing Plaintiff to show cause in writing within 14 days why the action should not be dismissed with prejudice for failure to prosecute. The Court noted that no attorney had entered an appearance on Plaintiff's behalf, and Plaintiff had not yet filed a Notice of Change of Address. That Show Cause Order was sent to Marcum's Dye Mill Road address. Given that the Defendant was again booked into the Butler County Jail, this time on April 2, 2019, there is a real probability that he never received the Show Cause Order of April 3, 2019. Regardless, Plaintiff has failed to respond to the Show Cause Order within the time allotted. On April 10th, he did, however, file a "Response to Defendant['s] Rule 26(f) Filing and Report. Doc. #90. He indicated that he is again confined to the Butler County Jail and has not been able to contact counsel for Defendant. Plaintiff again indicated that he had spoken to an attorney who had expressed an interest in representing him. He planned to speak to him again on April 8, 2019, and it was his belief that this attorney would be filing a Notice of Appearance. Plaintiff asked the Court to stay these proceedings until further notice. During the week of April 15, 2019, this Court's office spoke with attorney Brad Anderson, in order to verify that he would be entering an appearance in the captioned matter on Plaintiff's behalf and, if he were, to urge him to do same instant. Mr. Anderson's response was "[H]e's had some discussions with Ted Marcum but is not planning to enter a notice of appearance."

The Court OVERRULES Plaintiff's request to stay the proceedings, given that he has had ample time to find legal representation yet, to date, no attorney has entered an appearance on Plaintiff's behalf. Moreover, no attorney for Plaintiff appears to be on the horizon in the foreseeable future. Since at least October 8, 2018, counsel for the Defendant has indicated that he has attempted to secure Plaintiff's cooperation in filing a Joint Rule 26(f) Report, See Doc. #76. Plaintiff, who has been in and out of the Butler County Jail, has failed to keep the Court and Defendant's counsel apprised of his current address and contact information. Plaintiff's failure to do so has made it impossible to move forward with this litigation. This is so, even though Defendant's counsel has filed a unilateral Rule 26(f) Order.

ACCORDINGLY, given the exigencies of this case, and the fact that Plaintiff has apparently alternated between his address in Troy and the Butler County Jail, this Court will attach to this Decision and Entry, which will be sent to him, at both the Butler County Jail and his address in Troy, Ohio, a blank form for the filling out of a Rule 26(f) Report. He may do so on a unilateral basis. Providing same is filed within ten days from date and, moreover, provided that same is filled out, both completely and realistically, the Court will attempt to "harmonize" each side's Rule 26(f) Report and submit to the parties a scheduling order in as prompt a manner as is possible. Failure of the Plaintiff to file his own Rule 26(f) Report or even should he file same, should said filing be defective in one or more particulars, the captioned cause will be dismissed, for want of prosecution.
